

Python Bootcamp & Masterclass

containers

A container is an object that implements the method `__contains__`. So, any object that support membership testing is a container (membership operators : `in` and `not in`)

Online Resources

For best python resources, please visit:

gknxt.com/python/

Python Bootcamp & Masterclass

Thank You for your Rating & Review

